On September 16, 1963 MI T-1 advised that VITO AIELLO who is the bartender at the Brass Rail tavern is a member of the Italian syndicate and considered to be a muscle man for them. He stated that AIELLO is in the MANIACI, LA GALBO and DI MAGGIO faction. He stated that VITO AIELLO, AUGIE MANIACI and VITO's brother JOHN AIELLO were all three muscle men for the syndicate. MI T-1 stated that VITO AIELLO very possibly was involved in the murder of JACK ENEA several years ago and also has been involved in a number of burglaries and possibly holdups, but added he has never been arrested for any of these crimes.

MI T-1 advised on August 21, 1959 that VITO AIELLO and his brother JOHN were pushing sales of Fox Head 400 beer in Kenosha, Wisconsin area for JOHNNY RIZZO of Kenosha. He stated that VITO AIELLO, along with his brother JOHN AIELLO, MIKE ALBANO, WALTER BROCCA and FRANK AIELLO are considered strong men for the Italian syndicate in Milwaukee.

MI T-1 advised on September 24, 1961 that he had heard that VITO AIELLO was taking over the Brass Rail which was formerly owned by IZZY POGROB. He stated that POGROB was murdered in January, 1960 and that VITO AIELLO was a bartender there at the time.

He stated, however, that this group is not known as the Mafia but that the membership is select and limited. He advised that the organization at one time was headed by the father of VITO AIELLO.

On March 28, 1952 an anonymous letter was received at the Milwaukee Office of the FBI stating that SAM FERRARA, who was then head of the Mafia in Milwaukee, was closely associated with a number of other Italian hoodlums, including VITO AIELLO.

On August 12, 1961 an anonymous letter was received by the Milwaukee Office of the FBI stating that several years ago VITO AIELLO fired several shotgun blasts at BLACKIE SULLIVAN. DATE: 4/27/64

TO: DIRECTOR, FBI (92-6054)
FROM: SAC, MILWAUKEE (92-262) P
SUBJECT: LA COSA NOSTRA

The information on the attached sheets, which should not be included in an investigative report, was obtained from MI 646-C* on 4/3/64. Informant furnished information concerning discussion between FRANK BALISTRIERI and DOMINIC FRINZI (Section 1 of attached), between BALISTRIERI and GUS CHIAVEROTTI (Section 2), between BALISTRIERI and AUGIE MANIACI, GUS CHIAVEROTTI being present (Section 3), and between BALISTRIERI and CHIAVEROTTI (Section 4).

The information furnished by this informant gives an excellent insight into BALISTRIERI's position relative to DOMINIC FRINZI, CHIAVEROTTI and MANIACI and also shows his feeling as to WALTER BROCCA, CARL DI MAGGIO, his entree into the Teamsters Union Local 200 and it indicates rather precisely his subservient position to the outfit in Chicago.

Section 1 deals with contributions to various local politicians, apparently from Teamsters Union funds, and also a plan to collect $34,000 from Teamsters Locals in Wisconsin for JIMMY HOFFA's defense.

Section 2 deals with the jukebox business which BALISTRIERI and CHIAVEROTTI are engaged in as a joint venture and indicates an impending trip to Chicago by the two of them.

Section 3 sets out MANIACI's obtaining of BALISTRIERI's permission to use a particular line of defense in a local case that he is involved in and efforts to pay off a Judge. This section also contains strong information indicating that BALISTRIERI is very mad at WALTER BROCCA and CARL DI MAGGIO for independent activities on their part without obtaining his clearance.

Section 4 pertains to the Outfit and the reasons that it is not successful in Milwaukee.

The information as originally received from the informant is being maintained in the file in Milwaukee for future reference.

MI 92-262

FRANK BALISTRERI and DOMINIC FRINZI, a local attorney, discuss at some length the contributions for local Aldermanic campaigns of [redacted] and [redacted]. The money apparently came from the Teamsters Union in the amount of $100 for each and in the course of the discussion FRINZI told BALISTRERI "next time you can tell these people that you got the Teamsters (back of you?) one hundred per cent."

FRINZI also said that money had been handed over to [redacted] and to [redacted] and that a hundred dollars in stamps were given to [redacted]. BALISTRERI said that he had given money to [redacted] campaign even though he couldn't win because "you never know."

BALISTRERI also spoke of his efforts to try to make peace with the Milwaukee Police Department under the new chief by having a meeting with [redacted] who has been newly made the [redacted] in the Department.

Regarding JAMES HOFFA, FRINZI related considerable information which he apparently obtained in part at least from a speech by [redacted] about the errors in HOFFA's trial at Chatanooga, the fact that there were affidavits about the U.S. Marshals getting drunk with the jurors there and stating that Congress did not give the Justice Department money to fight just one man, that it was a question of civil liberties and things were no different now than in Hitler's day.

FRINZI also berated the Attorney General for bugging everybody's office including the President's and they agreed that things would be different now with JOHNSON President rather than BOBBY's brother being President although they expressed concern that BOBBY would be on the ticket as a Vice Presidential candidate.

FRINZI spoke as though he was a representative of a Teamsters Local and related that a joint council meeting was to be held in Green Bay in three weeks and that they would try to get a resolution passed to take money out of the council funds at the rate of a dollar a head and then raise the per capita tax on the membership and thus raise $34,000 from Wisconsin alone for HOFFA's defense fund. He explained that if this were done all over the country it would be possible for HOFFA to raise $1.2 or $1.3 million dollars but said that if it were put to a vote of the membership it would not be passed.

SECTION 2

Considerable discussion was had between BALISTRIERI and CHIAVEROTTI relative to the new business venture they are engaged in as Continental Sales Company (jukeboxes and pool tables, etc.) and indicating that they have already paid $15,000 and the balance is $5,000 which BALISTRIERI said he would pay. (From other investigations this apparently is a payment to Pioneer Sales and Service Company.) BALISTRIERI then says that he will go to Chicago and see what kind of arrangements he can make. CHIAVEROTTI indicates that he will go along and that when BALISTRIERI is through "with your business" (does not seem to be connected with the jukebox business) CHIAVEROTTI will meet him and then they'll go see "that finance guy."

SECTION 3

AUGIE MANIACI has a discussion with BALISTRIERI and GUS CHIAVEROTTI is present during at least a portion of it. MANIACI explains that he has an affidavit prepared by one [redacted] that would get him out of the whole "fix." (This pertains to fraudulent mortgage prosecution pending in state courts involving Wisconsin Suppliers and Builders Company, of which MANIACI was president. The case originally was brought to court in Milwaukee and [redacted] dismissed it for insufficient evidence. Thereafter, the Attorney General's office of the State of Wisconsin reinstituted the proceedings in various courts around the state where the property was located covered by the fraudulent mortgages. There are a large number of such cases pending and threatened.)

MANIACI said that he didn't want to hand it in because it would get him out until he had shown it to FRANK and discussed it with him. He said that he had already talked to VITO (AIELLO) about it and both FRANK and AUGIE agree that AUGIE and JOHN AIELLO, VITO's brother, are the ones that they're after and that there is no sense in both of them going to jail. AUGIE said that he would be willing to take the whole rap and the rest of the group could then support his family, even though he was innocent of any wrongdoing and that JOHN AIELLO and [redacted] were the individuals who were wrong on the deal.

FRANK said that was foolish talk and ended up instructing MANIACI to get hold of JOHN and tell him what VITO AIELLO had said and what BALISTRIERI had said and that as long as one of them gets out that's the way it should be and that if JOHN was unhappy then they should all come up and it would be decided then.

During the conversation MANIACI said that he had talked to [redacted] through [redacted] and that [redacted] was connected real good with [redacted] and was to go see how much money the Judge wants.

During the conversation BALISTRIERI severely berates WALTER BROCCA, aka, BLACKIE as always whining and being a liar, talking about how he's broke and then in a sneaky way coming up with $400 to go into partnership with JOE ENEA (a new restaurant just started) and without telling BALISTRIERI about it. BALISTRIERI said that BLACKIE is always talking about going to California and that he had been out there before and if it wasn't for him, BALISTRIERI, they would have killed him out there. Then when he came back he was whining like a little dog so BALISTRIERI who can't stand to see a guy down and out gave him a job (at Para Corporation). Thereafter, BLACKIE stole tools and equipment from Para Corporation.

During this part of the conversation GUS CHIAVEROTTI, who from other sources is believed to be the one that stole primarily from Para, disclaims any knowledge of BLACKIE's activities there and is subservient to BALISTRIERI's thinking.

BALISTRIERI also highly berates CARL DI MAGGIO for the activities of [redacted] (recently arrested in connection with a burglary ring). MANIACI said he had warned DI MAGGIO not to fool around with those guys and FRANK BALISTRIERI also said he told him a million times don't monkey around with those guys but DI MAGGIO said, "Aw, they're good people. They're all right." Then, according to BALISTRIERI, everyone of them tattled on him and CARL DI MAGGIO went to DOMINIC FRINZI who immediately came to BALISTRIERI.

DI MAGGIO told FRINZI to take [redacted] case but FRINZI said he could not because of a conflict of interest so CARL said he would call FRANK and he'll see to it that FRINZI takes the case. BALISTRIERI says that DI MAGGIO has no business telling FRINZI such things and if he wants he should come to BALISTRIERI to call FRINZI. BALISTRIERI in this conversation points out that FRINZI would take the case of "the guy we tell him to take" even if the other guy could pay ten times as much.

BALISTRIERI also says, apparently in alluding to the discipline in the Outfit, "If the guy says we got to go sell our shoes when we get the okay _____ but when he completely ignores us, we don't even want to know him. As far as I'm concerned, I don't even know that he's living any more" - referring to CARL DI MAGGIO. BALISTRIERI then related some incident which happened a couple years ago and informant lost much of the intelligence on this but did learn that a guy came up ~~from Chicago and BALISTRIERI~~ said, "You don't fool with them people." He said in an apparent reference to someone who had gone sour as a stool pigeon, "Them guys, you know, they're cold. If you come up to us and you want a guy we don't want to know if he's laying off. We're doing it because we're doing it for you. Now me, I want to be judge if the guy is right." He then again berates BLACKIE for lying at which point both MANIACI and CHIAVEROTTI deny to FRANK that they know how BLACKIE got his money to go in with JOE ENEA or the fact that he stole from Para Corporation. (It is known from other sources that these two individuals, particularly MANIACI, are very close to WALTER BLACKIE.)

Then in further allusion to MANIACI's mortgage case, after MANIACI leaves, FRANK and GUS CHIAVEROTTI discuss how MC GURK (an alias for VINCE MERCURIO, who is AUGIE MANIACI's uncle) bragged how he had the mortgage case fixed with _____ and the Attorney General's Office. CHIAVEROTTI said that nobody could talk to _____ that he's just a meticulous guy and he goes by the law and that if MC GURK had it set with the Attorney General how come the new warrants.

They also agree that JOHNNY AIELLO is an envious guy and it would hurt him to see this guy (MANIACI) get out of it while he would have to go to jail.

BALISTRIERI said that JOHNNY AIELLO the other day was talking about how he's dying and BALISTRIERI replied to him, "As long as you're dying, you want to make a hundred thousand dollars and leave it to your family? ~~How'd you like~~ a hundred thousand dollars to do something." BALISTRIERI said that he wished he had such an opportunity if he knew he was going to die. He'd take it instead of going around for this penny ante stuff. He said that anybody could do anything their man has to do with permission. They come and get the okay, then "we help them." "But no, these guys (unfinished quotation).

SECTION 4

BALISTRIERI and CHIAVEROTTI then discuss how BALISTRIERI has got more trouble than the rest of them because he's fighting last year and the year before and the year before and has "all that grief." BALISTRIERI says he's got six lawyers and nobody's worried about how he pays them or doesn't pay them. CHIAVEROTTI then said "Marshall (CAIFANO) they threw right in the can." BALISTRIERI replied that they (the Government) got a set-up deal with Federal Judges. "You don't know what they can do." CHIAVEROTTI remarks that PHILLY (ALDERISIO) doesn't look so good either. BALISTRIERI said he's in the same situation as PHIL, that "We've got something here in this town real beautiful." He then refers to contributions to the Aldermen's campaigns and the power and money although the informant did not get all the details. BALISTRIERI said he "works with these guys but we can't make a buck because we're all disorganized." And then bemoans the fact that he is in court and in the police station all the time, that "He's always getting a bum rap." In this connection he referred to some arrest of apparently juvenile patrons of his night club and said that he tried to get it fixed although he was kind of afraid but anyway he took a shot and it worked and "they called in these coppers and chewed their heads off" and no warrants were issued.

He then referred to his luncheon with [redacted] and said that [redacted] told him that they would investigate all the allegations they got, but that he didn't blame BALISTRIERI for his feelings. BALISTRIERI said that [redacted] said the feeling (at the Department) is a lot different (under the new Chief).

BALISTRIERI and CHIAVEROTTI then discussed what they called the "KENNEDY squad" who are following them all the time and using telephone taps and FRANK alludes to a little dissension with [redacted] and expresses concern with the "Allied." He has a suspicion that "They're trying to put some heat on us." (Allied refers to Allied Building Credit Company, 2100 West Atkinson, which outfit, according to other sources, is providing financing for subject's jukebox operation.

The following information was obtained from source MI CAC-C*
during the month of June, 1964:

6/11/64 - AUCIE MANIACI calls JOHN AIELLO, advising him that an attorney named (FNU) [REDACTED] will represent the five of them for a fee of $1,000 (concerning their part in the activities of the Wisconsin Builders and Supply Co. mortgage cases), which would average out about $200 apiece.

6/12/64 - A [REDACTED] (LNU) is introduced to BROCCA. Prior to leaving, [REDACTED] tells BROCCA that a [REDACTED] (LNU) wanted [REDACTED] to show BROCCA his gun. [REDACTED] pulls up in front of BROCCA's restaurant and shows BROCCA something that impresses BROCCA and states to BROCCA that he has three of them.

A [REDACTED] makes a call from BROCCA's restaurant about some bills he owes. States that he was not working at the present time but hoped to make a payment in a couple of weeks.

6/13/64 - An unknown male (U.M.) uses phone to call Checker Cab Co. (BR 6-5000) and asks for an [redacted] (Pho), who was not in.

6/14/64 - BROCCA, in a telephone conversation, tells someone that he needs money real bad. If he does not get some, he will have to close the restaurant.

In the early morning hours, BROCCA makes a telephone call to a GEORGE DIAMOND's, now known as VICTOR's (Victor's Cocktail Lounge and Restaurant, 613 East State Street, phone BR 2-2522) and asks for [redacted]. BROCCA also asks if a BENNY (possibly BENNY DE SALVO) had been there. BROCCA asks if he should call BENNY at his home. BROCCA then asks the person answering the phone to come over to BROCCA's restaurant right after this call. Shortly thereafter BROCCA makes another call and talks to an individual without mentioning any names. BROCCA tells him that he has just talked to someone and they were coming over. BROCCA then asks this individual (possibly BENNY) to come right over.

At about 3:40 a.m., BROCCA is working near some restaurant equipment and an U.M. enters. BROCCA berates him for being late, "called you a couple of hours ago." BROCCA states that he needs money badly and tells U.M. that he better come through. BROCCA mentions a figure of around $350. Further parts of the conversation are not discernible.

6/15/64 - At about 2:34 P.M., a U.M. enters restaurant and refers to two of the customers as the "lobby sitters over at the Belmont (Hotel)" U.M. talks about a woman who ran the Argus Bar. States that one day someone came into the bar and took a shot at the woman. This woman was then taken out the back way. She wanted to be a smart girl; now she has a big job in the courthouse in the tax department.

During part of this conversation, which was only partially audible, this U.M. seemed to talk about AUGIE MANIACI and referred to him as "one day is crying, the second day was happy, the third day he kills a guy, the fourth day he sells his house."

Around 9:37 p.m., a [redacted] enters the restaurant and is accused by U.M. of being with [redacted] in a car at one a.m. and three a.m. [redacted] reply is not audible. In conversation with her, several references are made about her apparent visit or activities in or around Sheboygan Falls or Sheboygan, Wisconsin.

[redacted] is still around DECCA's restaurant at two a.m. Her conversation is not audible.

At around 10:30 A.M., a U.M. calls a female. Talks about going to Chippewa Falls (Wisconsin) and is leaving tonight. U.M. possibly will go with [redacted] and a [redacted]

U.M. states that JOHN AIELLO is in the hospital and that his case will probably be postponed. U.M. then talks about some deal in which a [redacted] put in a lot of money, $100,000. U.M. believes that he will get some money out of it. States that [redacted] will not go for the deal as he lost money in the place before and that [redacted] does not get along with people at the Apache Co. (Telephone directory shows a listing for an Apache Realty, 203 E. Wisconsin, BR 1-3654)

NY 92-37

U.M. is also checking with a buyer on some deal for the female and he will let her know if he finds out anything before U.M. goes to Chippewa Falls.

6/17/64 -

BROCCA makes a call to Bud and Mayo's Tavern on North Green Bay Avenue and tells them they haven't made any payments on the jukebox for the past four months. BROCCA will be up on Saturday (to collect). After call, BROCCA tells a [] (LNU) to stop at the above tavern on Saturday and to collect $40 and that he is to get $40 per month from them, which is about $10 a week.

At around 9:10 P.M., a U.M. makes a call and talks to a [] (Pho). Talks about some court case and asks if a VITO (AIELLO) had to make another bond. There is some indication from the conversation that U.M. had loaned some money to someone, as a [] told him to get his money back. U.M. makes a statement that AUGIE (HANNACK??) would not do that. (Rest of conversation inaudible.)

6/21/64 -

BROCCA in around 9:20 p.m. Has a conversation with several U.M.s, in which they discuss what items would be easily obtained and turned into money after a burglary or robbery. They decide money would be the best thing to get and BROCCA would like to "hit" the Belmont Hotel. BROCCA stated he would have to get at least $2,000 before it would be worth his while to participate. Nothing is settled during this conversation. During this time, one U.M. is called [] He leaves after getting angry with his associates. [] had attempted to sell a ring, stating it was worth $100, but would take $50 for it. [] tries to sell the ring to one of the waitresses, who offers him $35 for it. [] states he paid $50 for the ring and obtained it from a guy in Seattle, Washington. BROCCA offers him $12. Tells BROCCA to go to R---.

MI 92-37

BROCCA breaks up conversation at around 10:03 P.M. with a statement "It is time to go back to work. Break up this Geist, Inc. and go back to work."

6/23/64

BROCCA calls [redacted] at around 11:53 A.M. BROCCA is looking for a truck to buy for his nephew, who he states is a building contractor. [redacted] states BROCCA and nephew should go over to White Motors at North 25th and West Clybourn to look over several trucks that Advanced Motors had traded in. BROCCA also inquires about a window pane for his nephew's garage.

b6

6/24/64

BROCCA calls [redacted] Nephew is interested in one of two trucks. Remainder of conversation is concerning price and how he is to obtain possession of truck. Nephew is to bring check to [redacted] place of business on South 3rd and deal will be closed.

b6
b7C

At around 9:21 P.M., BROCCA places a long-distance person-to-person call to a [redacted] (Pho) in Del Aire, California. BROCCA will have to wait for call.

b6
b7C

At about 9:36 P.M., BROCCA calls DOMINIC FRINZI and tells him he has an individual who operates an asphalt company in either Cudahy or South Milwaukee, Wisconsin. BROCCA states that this individual is interested in getting FRINZI and wants to help FRINZI in his primary campaign for governor of Wisconsin by raising funds. BROCCA will set up a date for them to get together.

BROCCA attempts to call a [redacted] (Pho), at [redacted] BROCCA tells person answering phone that it is important that he, BROCCA, get ahold of LOUIS and requests that LOUIS call him. [redacted] states that [redacted] is not a Wisconsin telephone company number.)

During a conversation with a waitress, BROCCA tells her he is only the manager of the restaurant and not the owner.

During the day, BROCCA talks with [redacted] about the truck his nephew bought and seems satisfied. BROCCA inquires about the soda cooler sitting out in [redacted] yard. BROCCA wants to use the cooler during the July 4th parade.

The Bureau by communication dated 1-31-66 advised extensive file reviews re LA COSA NOSTRA (LCN) membership conducted reducing data obtained to form suitable for Automatic Data Process (ADP). Certain data necessary to complete this automation was not adequately clear as reported, or in some instances had not been furnished to the Bureau in form necessary. The Bureau has forwarded ADP proof sheets indicating for particular subjects in Milwaukee Office the categories which require completion and instructions. SUBJECT: ANTI-RACKETEERING MATTERS
INSPECTION - MILWAUKEE DIVISION

DATE: 4/22/66

During the inspection of the Milwaukee Division in March-April, 1966, the inspectors noted that this division was maintaining 27 AR pending inactive cases in assigned status. The inspectors suggested that there was no particular purpose served in keeping these cases in an assigned status while pending inactive unless specific reasons existed for doing so.

This Division is of the opinion that at least some of these cases warrant retaining in an assigned status. It is felt that the Agents to whom these cases are assigned will have a greater continuing interest in them if they are assigned even though they are in an active status only for six months reporting or for some other reason the cases are made active.

Those retained in an assigned status are because of the position of the Subjects in the LCN or other hoodlum activity, or the obtaining of photos.
